Consonants, Vowels, and Diphthongs
Phonology (Part 5)
Study Aid Level One: Let's Read Greek!

Below are brief excerpts from the NTGreek text. Most of the words are short and will not be too difficult to pronounce. The first group is declarative statements. Let your voice drop on the last syllable of the last word. The second group is interrogative statements. Notice the Greek question mark at the end of the line. Train your eye to observe the question mark so that you raise your voice on the last syllable of the last word.

Declaratives: drop the voice on the last word.

listen ὁ δὲ Πέτρος εἰστήκει πρὸς τῆ θύρα ἔξω.

Interrogatives: raise the voice on the last word.
