

Lesson Eight: First Declension Nouns (Module A)
Feminine Nouns
Morphology: The Nominal System (Part 3)
Study Aid Level One: Quiz

Choose whether the statement is true or false. The statement has to be entirely true to be “True”.

1. There are no neuter nouns in the first declension. True False
2. First declension nouns are declined differently than second declension nouns. True False
3. The first declension is also known as the ēta-declension. True False
4. All first declension uncontracted nouns share identical case-number suffixes. True False
5. There are only six declension-paradigms represented in the first declension. True False
6. Feminine nominal stems belonging to the first declension terminate with either the vowel alpha or ēta. True False
7. Masculine nouns are represented in the first declension. True False
8. The nominative feminine singular is the lexical entry for all first declension nouns, whether feminine or masculine. True False
9. The article inflects to modify feminine nouns of the first declension only according to gender and number. True False
10. First declension feminine genitive singular and dative plurals are inflected identically. True False
11. The nominative and vocative singular case-number suffix for first declension feminine nouns is $-\alpha\iota$. True False
12. There is no distinction how first declension feminine nouns are declined whether the final alpha is long or short. True False

An answer key for this quiz is provided on the next page.

ANSWER KEY

Instructions. Choose whether the statement is true or false. The statement has to be entirely true to be “True”.

1. There are no neuter nouns in the first declension. True False
2. First declension nouns are declined differently than second declension nouns. True False
3. The first declension is also known as the ēta-declension. True False
4. All first declension uncontracted nouns share identical case-number suffixes. True False
5. There are only six declension-paradigms represented in the first declension. True False
6. Feminine nominal stems belonging to the first declension terminate with either the vowel alpha or ēta. True False
7. Masculine nouns are represented in the first declension. True False
8. The nominative feminine singular is the lexical entry for all first declension nouns, whether feminine or masculine. True False
9. The article inflects to modify feminine nouns of the first declension only according to gender and number. True False
10. First declension feminine genitive singular and dative plurals are inflected identically. True False
11. The nominative and vocative singular case-number suffix for first declension feminine nouns is $-\alpha\iota$. True False
12. There is no distinction how first declension feminine nouns are declined whether the final alpha is long or short. True False.